Press Release

Milliman announces the opening of a new Office in San Juan, Puerto Rico

New location marks the 50th Milliman Office Worldwide

Seattle – September 22, 2009 – Milliman, Inc., one of the premier worldwide consulting and actuarial firms, announced today that it has opened a new office in San Juan, Puerto Rico. The consultancy, in concert with other Milliman offices, will continue to serve existing clients while expanding the range and depth of Milliman health-related service offerings.

“Milliman’s wide range of talents and sixty-plus years of experience are ideally suited to meeting client needs in Puerto Rico, the Caribbean and Latin America,” said Clark Slipher, director of Milliman’s Health discipline. “We will respond to the growing demand for custom solutions in both the delivery and financing of healthcare products and services,” Mr. Slipher added.

The Manager of the new Milliman office is Luis O. Maldonado Irizarry, FSA MAAA. He brings nearly a decade of experience in the financial and insurance industries, most recently at a leading health insurance company in Puerto Rico. “Everyone involved in healthcare today recognizes the twin realities of a volatile economy against the backdrop of uncertain healthcare reform efforts, which is especially true in Puerto Rico,” Mr. Maldonado Irizarry noted, adding, “The unique expertise that Milliman has developed provides a valuable resource to all of us in the healthcare sector as we continue to navigate our way forward.”
