

Michael P. Blivess

FCAS, MAAA

Principal, Consulting Actuary

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Mike is a principal and consulting actuary with the Philadelphia office of Milliman. He joined the firm in 2002.

EXPERIENCE

Mike has more than 37 years of experience in the insurance industry involving a wide range of projects, including personal and commercial lines rate adequacy and rating plan design analysis, large account pricing, primary company loss reserving, assumed and ceded reinsurance loss reserving, reinsurance commutations from both an assuming and ceding company perspective, profitability analysis, catastrophe risk management, statistical reporting, data quality, and acquisition and divestitures.

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

- Fellow, Casualty Actuarial Society
- Member, American Academy of Actuaries

AFFILIATIONS

- Chairperson, Casualty Actuarial Society Member Advisory Panel Committee
- Past member, Casualty Actuarial Society Audit Committee
- Past part-chairperson, Casualty Actuarial Society Examination Committee
- Past member and chairperson, Casualty Actuarial Society Finance Committee
- Past member, Casualty Actuarial Society Valuation Committee
- Past assistant treasurer, Casualty Actuarial Society

EDUCATION

- BA, Mathematics, Loyola College

