

Kenneth L. Clark

FSA, MAAA
Principal, Consulting Actuary

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Ken is a principal and consulting actuary with the Chicago office of Milliman, which he rejoined in 1998 after three and a half years as assistant vice president with Celtic Life Insurance Company. Ken previously worked in the Chicago office of Milliman from 1989 to 1994.

EXPERIENCE

Ken specializes in small group and individual health insurance products, particularly major medical and Medicare Supplement. He has experience in benefit analysis, pricing, financial modeling, financial reporting, and industry analysis. Ken has also been involved in the development of various actuarial tools used in a multitude of client projects.

PRESENTATIONS AND PUBLICATIONS

- SOA 2003 Spring Meeting (moderator and speaker)
- SOA 2006 Valuation Actuary Symposium
- SOA 2007 Spring Meeting (moderator and speaker)
- 2006, 2007, 2009, and 2010 Medicare Supplement Industry Conference (sponsored by American Insurance Education Institute)
- Southwest Actuarial Club – 2009 Spring Meeting
- SOA 2010 Spring Meeting
- Presenter at various Milliman Health Consultant Forums
- “Medicare Supplement: Critical Factors for Success”, HealthWatch, January 2011

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

- Fellow, Society of Actuaries
- Member, American Academy of Actuaries

AFFILIATIONS

- Chairperson, Medicare Supplement Work Group of the American Academy of Actuaries
- Member, Rate Filing Guideline Task Force of the American Academy of Actuaries
- Member, Individual Medical Market Task Force of the American Academy of Actuaries
- Member, State Mandated Coverage Task Force of the American Academy of Actuaries
- Member of Conference Program Committee – 2009 AIEI Medicare Supplement Conference

EDUCATION

- BA, Mathematics and Economics, Macalester College

