

Lisa A. Larsen

ASA, MAAA, EA
Consulting Actuary

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Lisa is a consulting actuary with the Hartford, Conn., office of Milliman. She joined the firm in 2005.

EXPERIENCE

Lisa has more than 25 years of experience working in the benefits field as an actuary and consultant, assisting companies with the design and administration of their defined benefit plans, both qualified and non-qualified. She has also consulted with clients on a wide range of retirement issues, including funding, accounting, compliance, communications, and the design of both defined benefit and defined contribution plans. Prior to joining Milliman, Lisa spent 13 years as an in-house corporate actuary for a Fortune 500 company, involved in all types of benefit plans, both domestically and internationally. She has a consulting background prior to that.

PRESENTATIONS AND PUBLICATIONS

Lisa is a member of the Pension Committee of the American Academy of Actuaries and is a frequent speaker at the Enrolled Actuaries meetings in Washington, D.C. and the Hartford/Springfield Actuarial Club.

She has written an article on designing a retirement program for internationally mobile employees that was published by the Society of Actuaries.
