

Lisa Larsen

ASA, MAAA, EA
Consulting Actuary

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Lisa is a consulting actuary with the Hartford, Connecticut, office of Milliman. She joined the firm in 2005.

EXPERIENCE

Lisa has more than 25 years of experience working in the benefits field as an actuary and consultant, assisting companies with the design and administration of their defined benefit plans, both qualified and non-qualified. She also consults with clients on various retirement issues, including funding, accounting, compliance, communications, and the design of both defined benefit and defined contribution plans. Prior to joining Milliman, Lisa spent 13 years as an in-house corporate actuary for EDS (now HP), involved in all types of benefit plans, both domestically and internationally.

PRESENTATIONS AND PUBLICATIONS

Lisa is a frequent speaker at the Enrolled Actuaries Meetings in Washington, D.C., and at the Hartford/Springfield Actuarial Club. She was a member of the Pension Committee of the American Academy of Actuaries (2000-2008).

Lisa's publications include the following:

"Getting off the Pension Contribution Rollercoaster," April 2008, www.Milliman.com.

"Designing an International Pension Program for Mobile Employees," January 2003, The Pension Forum of the Society of Actuaries.

EDUCATION

- BS, Mathematics, University of Michigan
- MA, Actuarial Mathematics, University of Michigan

