

Sam Shellabarger

FSA, MAAA

Consulting Actuary

Current Responsibility

Sam Shellabarger is a consulting actuary with the Seattle office of Milliman. He joined the firm in 2016.

Professional Work Experience

Sam has worked with a broad range of clients, including health plans, integrated delivery systems, and provider groups. He has experience in the Medicare, commercial, and ACA markets.

Recent projects include:

- Support for provider groups in risk sharing programs, including MSSP, Next Generation ACO, and Direct Contracting
- Medicare Advantage bid development
- ACA exchange rate development
- Incurred But Not Reported (IBNR) reserve liability estimates
- Large group rate development and rate filing
- Healthcare cost savings opportunity analysis

Professional Designation

- Fellow, Society of Actuaries
- Member, American Academy of Actuaries

Education

BS, Mathematics - Actuarial Science,
Washington State University

