

Joseph Whitley

Healthcare Consultant

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Joseph Whitley is a healthcare consultant in the Medicaid Finance and Policy Practice in the Seattle office of Milliman. He joined the firm in 2019.

EXPERIENCE

Joseph has over seven years of experience in finance and analytics with a Master's in Public Policy (MPP) degree. In addition to his Medicaid consulting experience at Milliman, Joseph has worked as a Medicaid fiscal information and data analyst at the Washington State Health Care Authority and as the Funds Flow Analyst for HealthierHere (the King County Accountable Communities of Health formed under the 1115 demonstration waiver).

Joseph's expertise includes a demonstrated ability to conduct advanced-level financial research and analytic expertise required to successfully manage a State Medical Assistance program. Joseph has provided support for several state legislative sessions, in addition to work related to state Medicaid forecasting, managed care rate setting, and Medicaid transformation under the 1115 waiver.

Joseph also has experience with state-directed payment preprints, home and community-based service (HCBS) rate setting, dental managed care program implementation, Outpatient Prospective Payment System (OPPS) model development, and implementation of FQHC alternative payment models. Additionally, Joseph has experience working with funding strategies to optimize federal funding opportunities, including Intergovernmental Transfers (IGT), Certified Public Expenditures (CPE), and Provider Tax programs.

EDUCATION

- BA, Political Science, Western Washington University
- Master of Public Policy (MPP), Oregon State University

