Milliman receives top award for captive insurance services

US Captive Services Awards recognizes Milliman as “actuarial firm of the year”

Seattle – October 27, 2014, – Milliman, Inc., a premier global consulting and actuarial firm, was selected as the actuarial firm of the year at the 2014 US Captive Services Awards. The award, presented by Captive Review, is given to the firm demonstrating the highest level of service meeting their clients' needs over the last 12 months.

“The expertise shared by our consultants within the captive insurance industry has been invaluable to our clients,” says Bob Meyer, Milliman’s Property & Casualty Practice Director. “Milliman continually strives to provide the best solutions that address the challenges facing captive insurers and regulators. This award is a recognition of our firm’s efforts.”

Milliman fosters an entrepreneurial culture throughout the entire organization that encourages our consultants to consistently endeavor for excellence and to pursue new cutting edge solutions to meet the evolving needs of our captive insurance clients.
