Milliman's HR Communication Practice Wins 2016 Graphis, 2015 Marcom and 2015 HOW In-House Design Awards

Recognized for excellence in quality and creativity

Seattle- March 22, 2016- Milliman, a premier global consulting and actuarial firm, today announced that it was recently honored with the following international communication awards:

- “The Key Ingredient” Red Robin Non-Saver Campaign: 2015 Marcom Platinum Award, Graphis 2016 Merit Award, 2015 HOW In-House Design Merit Award
- “The Importance of Diversification – PlanAhead for Retirement”: 2015 Marcom Gold Award
- “Get A Tax Break” motion graphic video: 2015 Marcom Award
- “Happy Holidays” e-card: Graphis 2016 Merit Award, 2015 Marcom Award

The winning materials were created by the Dallas-based team of senior communication consultants, writers, graphic designers and web experts. Milliman delivers award-winning communication services to millions of employees across the United States. Services range from videos, interactive modelers and websites to meeting services, print and mobile.

Janet McCune, principal at Milliman, says, “Our clients hire us to make their messages clear to their employees, to cut through the clutter, to change attitudes and to drive behavior change. Individual client results and statistics confirm the success of our ongoing work, but these awards are especially meaningful because they validate the level of excellence we bring to our clients from an international perspective.”
